INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
NOW INDISTRESS.
Needs Organized Baseball's Help, But
It is Withheld.

Many of the club owners of the International league are highly incensed because of the action of the National league in refusing the request to locate one of their clubs in the Bronx. It has been stated that some of them are so mad that they have made threats to jump from organized baseball.

President Edward G. Barrow ridiculed this idea and said: "There is not a chance in the world of our abandoning organized ball as far as I am concerned. Why, I would rather go out of business than do that." So it is very certain that Barrow has his way the league will remain loyal even in its adversity. He admitted, however, that he could not speak for all the club owners.

The club owners have had conference, since last fall, when they made their financial situation known to the major leagues, that some aid would be forthcoming. President Barrow and the club owners firmly believe that by transferring a club to the Bronx the league would be able to weather its present critical stage. These owners, who are disappointed that they are now so disappointed that they are ready to take almost any action to avoid a repetition of last year's experience.

It has been rumored that four clubs of the International circuit would be ready to abandon organized ball, but this rumor was denied by President Barrow, who feels certain that all his clubs will remain loyal. There was nothing new in the situation and no definite action concerning the International league's affairs will be taken until the meeting of the league next Monday.

It was stated that among the National league club owners several of them favored the move. President Ebbetts of Brooklyn, for example, on account of his interest in the Newark club, is strongly in favor of it. Mr.
Ebbetts spoke very highly of President Barrow's game fight to keep his league on its feet. He thinks he deserves support.

Mr. Ebbetts said: "The McKev-ers and myself own 205 shares of the stock in the Newark club. When there was a deficit at the end of the season we tried to get other stockholders to stand their share of an assessment to pay off the arrears, but they failed to come across.

"I will say, however, that we will meet all our obligations in Newark." "I do not believe that an international league club in the Bronx would hurt either the National or the American league clubs in Manhattan to any extent. Whether the project will be a success is something that can be decided only by experiment. I believe, however, that the residents of the Bronx, that is the people who work and live there, would be attracted by a minor league with minor league or private ownership. It is not likely that either the National or American league would give permission for an international league club to locate in the territory owned by them. President McKev-ers, Houston and Ruppert oppose it."

Up to the present time the American league has been silent as to its position in the matter. Of course, the new owners of the Yankees, Colonel Ruppert and Captain Huston, are under obligation to the Giants for the use of the Polo grounds, and it is not likely that they would take any action which would oppose the Giants.

The American league club there also is looking for a park of its own, and it is not unlikely that the new owners may want to invade the Bronx territory themselves, as they have a right to it under the territorial right law of baseball. They would like to have own as soon as possible on account of the high rental of the Polo grounds.

The location of a new baseball park for the Yankees is causing more or less worry to the new owners. It is known that they have the option on the site chosen by Frank J. Farrell at 225th street and Broadway, but this site while it would attract the fans from downtown and on the west side, would not be any too convenient to the residents of the Bronx. So it is likely that the Yankees, if they settle very far up town, will look for a site in the Bronx territory close to where the International league planned to locate.

GERMAN RED CROSS MEMBERS and THEIR RED CROSS DOGS

GERMAN RED CROSS DOGS USED TO SAVE LIVES OF UNDISCOVERED WOUNDED SOLDIERS

German Red Cross dogs are used effectively by Red Cross members to search for wounded soldiers after battles in cases where the men have fallen in woods and ditches and have been undiscovered or left for dead. The dogs hunt out the wounded soldiers, and this often results in saving the victims' lives.

The party will proceed thence to Hot Springs, Ark., for the "boiling out" process before joining their mates at guard comprises Pitchers Warburton, Nunamaker is already at Hot Springs,

BILL JAMES WANTS
AN INCREASE IN SALARY.
Big Californian Wants $6000—But Gaf-ney Says $4000 or Not at All.

Boston, Feb. 12.—"Bill" James, one of the men who pitched the Boston Nationals to a world's championship last fall, wrote to a friend here today that he was desiring for an increase in salary. His three year contract, signed last July when the Braves were still low in the league standing, calls for $4000 a year. It is understood the big Californian wants $6000.
President Nickerson, according to Secretary Nickerson, says that he will play for $4000 or not at all.

The letter received today James said he understood the binding provisions of the contract and added:
"It is my present intention not to report this season unless my demands are granted."

WINNER OF INTERCOLLEGIATE SKI CROSS-COUNTRY RACE
Gave Fine Exhibition at the Dartmouth Winter Carnival.

Hanover, N. H., Feb. 12.—The ski exhibition of C. L. Pearson of New Hampshire university was the feature of the Dartmouth winter carnival today. He won the intercollegiate ski cross-country race, in which Banks of McGill university was second and Bowler of Dartmouth third and closed the day with a spectacular exhibition of somersaulting from the ski jump.
The snow was a trifle soft, slowing up the events considerably.
The ten mile ski relay race between McGill and Dartmouth was called off on account of darkness with Dartmouth leading by two minutes, 45 seconds. The final lap will be run off tomorrow.

PHIL. SQUASH RACQUET
PLAYERS DEFEAT BOSTON.
Victors Won Three Matches Out of Five in the Inter-City Contest—Pearson Defeated Bartlett in the Single.

Boston, Feb. 12.—Squash racquet players from Philadelphia defeated Boston men in three matches out of five in the inter-city contest on the Boston Athletic Association courts today. Teams from Baltimore and Toronto were expected to compete, but only one man from each city arrived.
It was explained that the Toronto players had gone to the war.
One of the surprises of the national singles championship played in conjunction with the other event was the ease with which S. W. Pearson of Philadelphia, champion of Pennsylvania, defeated Matthew Bartlett, the Massachusetts champion. Pearson will play H. A. Haines of Boston for the national title tomorrow. Haines getting into the final by defeating T. B. Greening of Toronto.

250 Candidates Out For Yale Track Team.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 12.—Two hundred and fifty Yale students presented themselves as candidates for the university track team at an enthusiastic mass meeting held tonight.

Among the speakers were Captain Shedd, Fred Johnson, Mack Captain Wilson of next year's football team, and Arthur Howe, a former Yale football captain.
The speakers emphasized the necessity of hard work on the part of the candidates to keep up the Yale standard. Many of the point winners of last year's squad, which defeated Princeton and Harvard have been lost by graduation.
Active training starts tomorrow.

game which was played Friday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. At the end of the first half the Greenville boys had rolled up a score of 22 to 9.
Finlayson and Tilley played a challenge to any grammar school in eastern Connecticut for a series of games and all communications should be sent to Manager Tilley of Fourth street.

Berke and Hour guards; Broadway, Abandons Hawaiian Islands Trip.

The Harvard varsity baseball team have decided to abandon the proposed trip to the Hawaiian Islands for a game with the several baseball teams in Honolulu and Oahu that have been anxious to meet an American college team. The trip also included a stop-over at San Francisco, where the Harvard team had been invited to play several games by the management of the Panama-Pacific exposition.

The economical scheme that is being pursued in athletics at Harvard was responsible for the abandoning of the trip to the Hawaiian Islands. The association considered such an extensive trip as too costly for the finances of the Crimson treasury to stand. The Hawaiian baseball teams had been notified. It is possible, however, that the Harvard players may arrange an independent tour of the islands immediately after the close of their season in June.

lost but one of the lot. The cadets are willing to take on all comers in this section at their weight. Following are the scores of games played this season:

Club.

Boston, Feb. 12.—Harvard with several substitutes in its forward line tonight defeated the St. Nicholas Hockey club of New York 4 to 2. Hockey Baker scored two of his team's goals and it was on a shot by him that Goalkeeper Wyde of Harvard accidentally sent the puck into the "Crimson" cage. Phillips of Harvard was carried off the ice with three teeth gone and his mouth cut and Captain
with a strained ligament.

CLABBY THINKS WILLARD HAS FIGHTING CHANCE
Clever Middleweight Believes the Sun is Setting on Johnson's Career.

When there is really nothing better to do to pass the time away, the boxing enthusiasts, the boxing managers and boxers themselves, delight in taking a fall out of the white heavyweights in general, and any man who attains prominence in particular. But Jimmy Clabby, the Hammond middleweight, stands out as one who believes in building up, rather than in tearing down. Jimmy firmly believes that the day is not far distant when the sun of the heavy lighters will set, and that a white man will win the title. While making no rash predictions, Clabby holds that Jess Willard stands at least a fighting chance of defeating Jack Johnson when they meet at Juarez, or elsewhere, on March 6, or some other date.

Clabby had the gloves on with Willard while the latter was in Chicago, and the story goes that the Indiana lad was greatly surprised at the skill of his opponent. Bartlett, who is a lover of Clabby, offered to help train Willard for the match with Johnson. He said that he would go to his camp and box with him every day, and try to get a little speed into him. The offer was accepted as freely as it was given, and unless Jimmy is prevented by engagements, the new weight champion one of the cleverest middleweights in the world—a master boxer—will be seen in action every day.

The average boxing fan holds that Clabby has the courage of his convictions, to say the least. If Willard is truly a "fighting champion," and not a "show man," he will win. He is young, and Jack Johnson is old, not in years so much, but as a fighter. Jack is thirty-seven years old now, and about at the point where most athletes begin to go back. If Willard can keep a little aggression into his making-up, he may do it. He can hit, and from the reports of disinterested people has picked up quite a bit of boxing skill. He has great powers of endurance and recov-eration along with his great strength, and in a long battle these may help.
Of course, Willard is human, and if Johnson curls one of his crushing hooks home on the jaw or to the solar plexus the Dutch may be brought home quickly.

Columbia Defeated Penn.
New York, Feb. 12.—The Columbia University of Pennsylvania five 25 to 10 in an intercollegiate league game

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 12.—Cornell went into first place in the intercollegiate basketball league tonight by defeating Princeton 19 to 15.

Says the New York Press: "Should the Feds choose Newark, the International will very likely have to shut down for at least a year, as Montreal and Toronto are not in a position to substitute a ball team. The Jersey City franchise is an orphan which nobody wants. Richmond was a great town in the Virginia league, but it still is to be proved it will support class A baseball, in which 15-cent admission fees, are, as yet, unknown."

Charley Woegham was asked recently what the Feds would do if they lost the case. "Why, we can't lose anything, even if the verdict is given against us," he replied. That may not be exactly correct, as the Feds can lose public approval, but judging from the size of their crowds last season they never were as strong with the public as they had hoped. Yet, sifted down organized baseball from the start stood to lose a great deal and to win practically nothing but a moral victory.
On the other hand, the Feds played for high stakes with a defeat not costing them much.—Philadelphia Press.
